

COLLEGE CHAPEL IS DEDICATED
THIS MORNING

A long-time dream of Gettysburg College was realized this morning when hundreds of returning alumni and prominent guests came to the campus to witness the dedication of the new $570,000 Christ Chapel.

The consecration ceremonies, held at 10:30 a.m. to commence the college's annual Homecoming Weekend, began with a procession of notable clergymen of the Lutheran church. Included in this group were the Rev. Robert B. Cassell, president of the West Virginia Synod; Rev. Dr. Frank Fife, president of the Maryland Synod; Rev. Dr. N. J. Gould Wickey, secretary of the Board of Education of the ULCA; Rev. Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary; the Rev. Dr. Frederic E. Reinartz, secretary of the ULCA; Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president emeritus of Gettysburg College, and the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putnam, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod. A brief presentation took place as J. Alfred Hamme, the chapel architect, handed over the keys to the chapel to Dr. Walter C. Langsam, college president.

Three Bring Greetings
After the liturgical service, greetings were extended by Dr. Wickey, Dr. Baughman and Dr. Reinartz. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Hanson, past president of the college and leader in the progress towards completion of the chapel.
The chapel, which came into being through the donations of several thousand persons, was officially "born" in the spring of 1951 when ground breaking ceremonies were held. Now completed, except for some minor work, the edifice takes up almost an acre of ground and stands 148 feet from base to the top of the cross. The interior boasts exquisite hand-painted windows inlaid with details illustrating various biblical parables and a fine mosaic showing Christ blessing a college graduate. A prominent feature is the organ, designed by Virgil Fox, of Riverside Church, New York City, and given to the college by the Gettysburg College Woman's League.

Carroll of the White House staff wrote the committee that "in view of the uncertainty of the demands on the President's time on and around May 30 of next year, it is not possible to say whether or not he will be able to accept the cordial invitation which you have extended. It will, therefore be appreciated if you will renew your offer to the President sometime near the first of March, 1954, at which time it is to be hoped that more concrete information will be at hand on which to base a definite reply."

Seek Cause Of Blast That Killed
33 And Hurt 40 On Carrier Leyte
In Boston Harbor; Hint Sabotage

BOSTON (AP)—Navy investigators swarmed over the wounded carrier Leyte today seeking an explanation of a violent explosion and fire that spread death and destruction in her compartments yesterday.

The known dead numbered 33 and at least 40 more were injured. Many of the latter were critically burned.

Asked about published reports that Navy Intelligence men and agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation were investigating the possibility of sabotage, the FBI answered, "No comment."

As the Navy made plans to convene a court of inquiry possibly Monday, Rep. Thomas J. Lane (D-Mass.) wired Defense Secretary Wilson a sharp demand for an "immediate and thorough investigation."

"I am at a loss to understand how such a tragedy could occur in our own Boston Naval Shipyard," he said, "when your department has at its disposal every precautionary measure to guard against such unfortunate occurrences, especially while the carrier is in port."

The blast occurred forward on the port side of the big, 27,500-ton carrier that cost 90 million dollars when she was launched at Newport News, Va., in 1945. Unofficial reports said 1,400 officers and men (Please Turn To Page 10)

Courageous Chinese Kick And
Hurl Chairs At Red Coaxers;
Commies Can't Convert Them

By GEORGE McARTHUR and MILO FARNETI
PANMUNJOM, (AP)—Bitter squabbles flared between Allied and Communist officers today as all but 9 of 430 Chinese war prisoners defiantly turned their backs on Red attempts to woo them back to Communism.

It was a second stinging blow to the Reds, who persuaded only 10 of 500 to return in the first day of the explanations Thursday.

There will be no explanations tomorrow—Sunday—under Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission (NNRC) rules.

The dramatic Allied-Communist fight of war reached fevered pitch Saturday, not only in the clashes between the prisoners and their Red explainers—but between U. N. command and Red officers.

A bitter flareup, punctuated by kicks and curses, flamed over one anti-Red Chinese POW who was forced to listen to Communist explainers for almost three hours.

100 SOLICITORS
IN CHEST DRIVE TO DINE TUESDAY

Approximately 100 solicitors will gather Tuesday evening at the YWCA for the annual "kick-off" dinner inaugurating the sixth financial drive to provide $20,500 for support of six local organizations.

As usual the dinner will be free as far as Community Chest is concerned. The YWCA and a number of local groups underwrite the dinner's cost as part of the work that must be done to get the drive underway.

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, chairman of the fund campaign, today asked all canvassers to be present for the dinner. At that session they will be given materials and instructions for the drive. Because the arrangements made this year differ considerably from the plans used in other years, attendance at the dinner is necessary for complete instruction, Attorney Hartman said.

11-Day Campaign

The active solicitation for funds will take place during an 11-day period, from Wednesday morning until October 31. However a number of people in the borough have already begun to save toward the drive and some have already turned in contributions.

October 6 a letter was sent 1,250 persons in the Gettysburg area containing a coin saver and letter explaining the great need for larger contributions by more individuals this year.

The letter suggested that the coin savers be kept at home until the solicitor arrives, but many have already turned filled coin savers in to Chairman Hartman.

Jayecees Helping

In connection with the drive a barrel for donations was placed Friday evening at the Gettysburg High School football game. Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce placed the barrel and arranged for its custodians. The same barrel will be placed at the Lehigh-Gettysburg game this afternoon with the hope donations for Community Chest can be secured.

Arranging for the placing of the barrel in various sites is a committee from the Jaycees comprising David Blocher, Donald Becker, Virgil Hartman and Harold Ecker.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is also placing posters for the campaign in various spots throughout the community.

Plan Benefit Dance

Another Junior Chamber effort for the Community Chest will be a square dance to be held at the armory October 28 immediately after the Halloween parade. Caller for the square dance will be Earl Crouse.

Admission donation to the dance will be 45 cents for individuals and 75 cents per couple. All income will go to Community Chest.

Decorations for Lincoln Square are to be placed by John D. Lippy Jr., co-chairman for publicity and advertising for the campaign.

IKE FLIES TO NEW ORLEANS FOR BIG EVENT

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—President Eisenhower flew south today to help New Orleans celebrate the 150th anniversary of the Louisiana Purchase.

President Eisenhower left the Midwest farm belt after two days of speechmaking, plan-drafting and conferring with farmers and cattle-men beset by drought and price problems.

His arrival in New Orleans was in the midst of an out of season Mardi Gras. After a gala parade, Eisenhower was to speak in front of the city's old Spanish City Hall.

He did a little speaking last night—after a brief visit to Abilene, Kan., where he roamed through his boyhood home and delighted the citizenry by kissing a long ago sweetheart, Mrs. Gladys Brooks, in the middle of a main street.

The occasion for last night's speech was the dedication of a new headquarters for the American Hereford Assn.

Chatted About Cattle

And "Hereford," the President told a chuckling audience of cattlemen and their friends, is properly pronounced "Herford" and not "Hairford" as some very cultivated people, to use Eisenhower's own phrase, would have it.

The chief executive spoke from a floodlit outdoor platform surrounded by a full size, full color figure of a Hereford bull. Mostly, the President—who spent part of his boyhood on a farm—just chatted with his audience about cattle.

"You know," he said, "the old scrub cattle on the prairie began to disappear when I was a very young boy. There were all sorts of new breeds appearing—short horns, Angus, this white face—and the Galloway—whatever has happened to the Galloway? He was a big black cow, you know, bigger than that Angus, and sort of woolly-haired. And the people who advocated him said he was going to give a lot of milk and a lot of beef, too, and was going to be a better cow than any of the rest."

"But the white face seems, at least, in this section, to have taken over very greatly."

Seek Donations For United Nations Day

The Adams County United Nations committee today asked additional donations to finance the program for the observance of the eighth anniversary of the founding of the United Nations and the program honoring the returned county Korean War veterans.

Donations made to the committee so far total $126. $35 was received from the sale of UN pins; $5 from the Soroptimists; $10, VFW; $5, VFW Auxiliary; $10, Albert J. Lentz American Legion post; $10, Elks; $25, Rotary; $10, Woman's Club of Gettysburg and $5, Business and Professional Women's Club, Littlestown donated $5 from the Lions club, $5 from the Woman's Community Club and $1 from the American Legion Auxiliary.

The committee needs about $200 to cover costs including the meal for the Korean War veterans. Checks should be made payable to Adams County United Nations Committee and sent to Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, care of Gettysburg National Bank.

HARVARD BAND SERENADES ELI; 3 ARE ARRESTED

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The Harvard band serenaded its ancient rival Yale early today and almost caused a riot.

The Crimson bandmen, six bus loads of them, paid a surprise visit while enroute to the Columbia-Harvard game in New York.

Unloading at York street in the heart of the university section, the band formed quickly.

The church clock showed it was 2:30 a.m. The big city green adorning the university buildings was steeped in a deep New England silence.

Suddenly the atmosphere vibrated to the blare of "Fair Harvard" and echoes of marching feet.

Yale heads began to appear at every window. Then came shouts of protests; and then came the police.

Three Arrested

The church clock showed 4:30 a.m. before the Harvard bandmen were back in their buses for the trip to Baker field.

The police blotter showed three arrests, including that of an off-duty policeman, Anthony Matteo. He alone of the audience apparently enjoyed the serenade.

Matteo was charged with intoxication and breach of the peace. Police said he protested when fellow policemen tried to establish order.

Arrested also was Peter Strauss, the band leader. He was charged with holding a parade without a permit and breach of peace.

Edward K. L. Lupton, the band manager, was charged with breach of the peace.

Strauss and Lupton rejoined their fellow bandmen after posting bonds.

"BENEVOLENCE"

I am no stranger to sharp pain ... so I try to relieve ... the suffering of other folks ... whose fate it is to grieve ... I do believe that God above ... has made suffering so ... in order that the strong may help ... the ones who feel but woe ... God taught us that great joy is gained ... by giving of our strength ... to aid the poor and broken ... we should go to any length ... by words or deeds or even smiles ... we must assist the poor ... for by so doing we can help ... ourselves to long endure ... for he who will support the lame ... of body, purse or mind ... has gained the pleasure of our God ... for aiding all mankind.

INDIAN SEIZES PRISON GUARD; IS ARRESTED

JACKSON, Mich., (P)—Brandishing an 18-inch butcher knife, a three-time convict abducted a southern Michigan prison farm guard before dawn today. But blazing police shotguns finally halted his cross-state flight by car.

The guard suffered a heart attack and was taken to a Muskegon hospital upon his rescue. He also was suffering from shock.

Neither the convict, a young Indian, nor the guard was wounded in gunfire that ended a 90-mile-an-hour chase three miles north of Fruitport, between Grand Rapids and Muskegon.

The convict is Dorn (chief) Pawnesing, 24, an Indian serving two to four years for felonious assault with a knife.

The guard, Frank Pfau, 54, was in lone charge of 50 trusty prisoners on a farm, a mile and a half northwest of the Jackson city limits.

Threatened With Knife
Pawnesing left a note saying: "Man is going with me. It makes no difference if he is dead or alive. If he is dead, God bless him. He is a cop. Cop is a cop, no matter where you see him."

Threatening Pfau with a stolen knife, Pawnesing forced him to go with him in the guard's car.

State troopers Dave Verborg and Thomas Krusniak gave chase. Shots hit the fleeing car.

With his car wobbling on flattened tires, Pawnesing stopped and surrendered peacefully. Pfau collapsed.

A smallish, 5-foot-7, 140-pounder, Pawnesing first came to prison in 1948 to serve six months to two years for a fourth drunk and disorderly conviction. He came back in 1951 for contempt of court. His list of arrests is a long one.

was evacuated but was sent back to Korea at his own request.

Rotated to the United States in 1951, he applied for the Far East again and was sent to Korea to find the 19th back in Japan.

McCumsey's request for transfer was approved and he found himself back with his old unit just in time to be sent to Korea—for his fourth time—when the outfit was ordered back in July.

"I'm looking forward to my fifth tour," he says, "as long as it's with the 19th."

DEWEY DENIES TOP LEVEL MAN ATTEMPTED FIX

NEW YORK (P)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has denied a charge by Democratic mayoral candidate Robert F. Wagner Jr. that one of that governor's "closest political associates on the national scene" tried to get parole for a convicted labor extortionist.

Wagner, in an "emergency" radio broadcast yesterday challenged Dewey to deny the allegation. Dewey promptly denied it and added:

"Apparently Wagner is trying to charge that some member of the national administration appealed to me unsuccessfully in the interest of Joseph Fay."

"I always thought the boy (Wagner) was stupid, but never before thought he was crazy. No such appeal has ever been made to me by anyone connected with the national administration."

Wagner's charge pointed up the political tension in the case of Fay—an AFL union official jailed for shaking down contractors for $386,000, and who had been visited in Sing Sing prison by state and national figures.

In his broadcast, Wagner said: "I call on the governor to deny that one of the men who tried to get Fay out of jail was and is one of Dewey's closest political associates on the national scene one of the most important men in the United States."

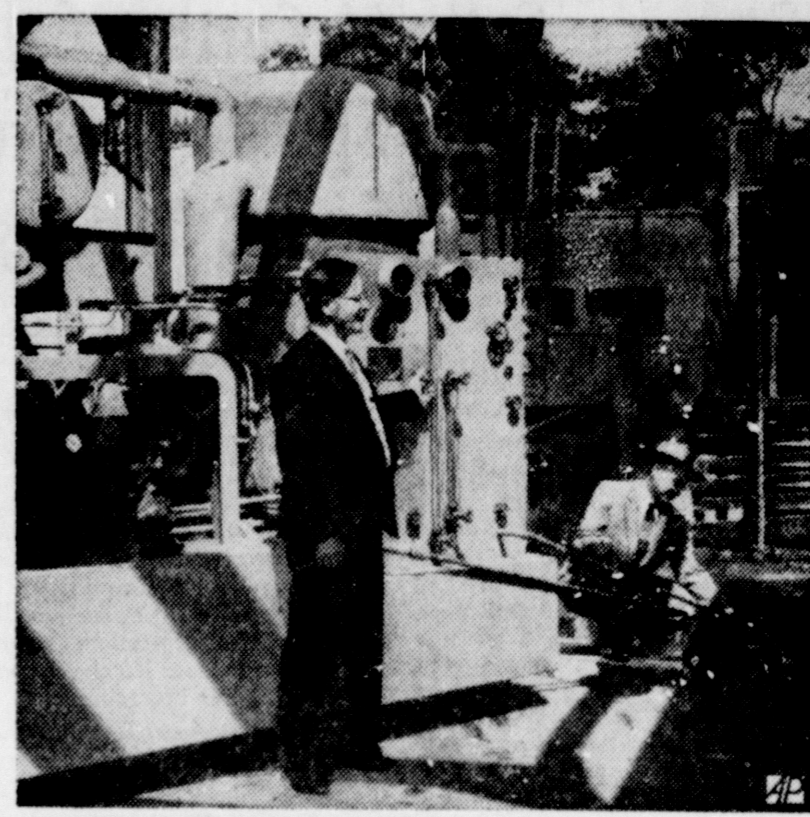

Giving no further clue to the person's identity, Wagner said the individual's "every word and act" was considered important throughout the nation.

A crowd of Americans standing nearby yelled, "Shut up."

File Protest

The Allied repatriation group commander, Brig. Gen. A. L. Hamblen, wrote Thimayya protesting the number of Communists who Friday entered an explanation camp.

Hamblen said the Indians had told the U. N. command that 240 Communists would enter the camp, but "an actual count by military police indicates that 356 Communists entered the area."

In all, 23,400 former Red soldiers—14,600 Chinese and 7,800 North Koreans are being held by the commission for interviews.

There was still no indication when the U. N. command would start meeting with the 23 Americans, 1 Briton and 333 South Koreans who refuse to return home.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TEN YEARS AGO

Local Man is Bomber Pilot: Second Lt. Harvey J. Yingt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Yingt, of 325 South Washington, was a member of the eleventh class of Liberator B-24 bomber pilots to graduate from the AA Pilot school at Fort Worth Army Air Field, Texas.

Lt. Yingt, 25, won his wings and commission at Frederick, Oklahoma, after completing preliminary flight training at Vernon, Texas and Enid, Oklahoma.

Bombs Burst, Fires Rage—Only a

Test: "Hundreds were killed and injured, fire raged out of control throughout Adams county, demolition squads rushed to rescue persons buried in bombed houses, medical, fire, and police facilities were extended to their utmost."

That was the picture of Adams County in an air raid drawn by civilian defense officials during a state-wide control center test Friday evening. Gathered in the centers throughout the county and at the county control center in Gettysburg, the civilian defense officials mapped out their plans to meet the exigencies of a mythical air raid on the county which was part of the state-wide destruction mythically occurring throughout the early part of the night.

County Tops Quota by $172,385: Adams county exceeded its Third War Bond drive quota of $2,134,100 by $172,385, the Federal Reserve Bank reported to Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the County War Finance Committee Thursday. Total sales in the county of all series of offerings were announced as $2,306,485.

Adams county is one of the thirty-counties in the state to reach or exceed their goal. Twenty-nine counties failed to obtain their quotas.

Wooden Cases For Honor Roll Are Completed: Completion of three wooden cases for the names of nearly 3,000 Adams County men now serving in the armed forces was announced Saturday by the committee in charge of erection of a permanent honor roll of countians in the service. The large cases will be placed on the north side of the Dougherty and Hartley building facing the Gettysburg square. Dedication of the honor roll will take place on November 11 with the American Legion in charge of the program.

The 2,653 names, being printed in gold letters on small panels, will be placed in alphabetical order in the cases. The cases, built at the Gettysburg furniture factories, will be painted white and will be placed in the show rooms at the factories until the names are placed. Dr. R. D. Wickerham, chairman of the committee, said today.

GOP Majority Increased 219 Over Primary: The Republican majority in Adams county has increased from 1,400 to 1,619, according to a count by the clerks of the Adams County Registration commission of the number of countians eligible to vote at the November 2 election. The total number of voters eligible to cast a ballot at the elections is 16,609. Over 2,000 more men than women are eligible for the franchise. The number of Republican men is 5,021. Republican women, 3,994; Democratic men, 4,281; Democratic women, 3,115.

Lefever Heads District PSEA: Guile W. Lefever, principal of Gettysburg High School, was elected president of the Southern Convention District of the Pennsylvania State Education Association Friday at the annual convention at Hershey.

Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools, who was vice president of the county superintendents department of the district last year, was elected president of that department.

Selection of Mr. Lefever to head the district marks the second time in 18 years of the organization's existence that a Gettysburg man headed the group. Dr. Frank H. Kramer, of the college faculty, was elected president in 1928.

Judge W. C. Sheely was a member at the session of a panel on "Juvenile Delinquency."

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

TRY SOMETHING NEW
A young girl has written me telling me of her inmost feelings. She puts it in these words: "I am very dissatisfied in every phase of my living, and thus live a very unhappy life." One thing I can suggest. Try giving yourself away by thinking of others, not yourself. One's own happiness always results in investing in the happiness of others.

It is amazing how life lights up the moment that we start being kind, doing generous acts, or in thinking out some act that will give to another an unexpected happiness. If we concentrate upon our own affairs too much we lose perspective. Like the instrument out of tune in an orchestra.

Take up new interests of some sort that will return personal joy. Count all the blessings you can that belong to you. Then divide them with others. None of us live happily unto ourselves. When the sunshine spreads out all life is benefited within every warm ray. Spread your life out. You will be surprised at the reaction. Your personal troubles and questionings will disappear. It is normal to be happy.

There is a little line that I have placed under the glass of my desk. It says: "When we face the light the shadows fall behind." These shadows are our troubles and worries that actually die in the light. All of us are far better off than we realize. There are others, far worse off, yet who face life with courage offering no complaints. No matter how lonely and neglected we imagine ourselves to be, all nature befriends us!

To be dissatisfied is nothing to be worried about. If we were always satisfied we would not get very far in life, for we would just be spectators with others in the procession moving forward to all the rewards in life. None of us can be very happy merely by solely thinking about it. We must put it into practice!

THE BANQUET SEASON
Once more we start the banquet round.

Once more: "We have with us tonight."

Again the lengthy speech profound. The chicken fried—dark meat and light.

And why, I wonder, always these: The cut up carrots mixed with peas?

Once more the old black coat and tie. (Make sure that mine is cleaned and pressed.)

At night when on display am I - I must appear correctly dressed. And surely it would be as well

To dust the jokes toastmasters tell.

The restful summer days have fled. The time has come for evenings long.

Once more the banquet boards are spread.

Once more I'll have to join the throng

At midnight and be last in line To get that coat and hat of mine.

McCarthy Calls Committee To Special Saturday Session For Secret Witnesses' Testimony

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) summoned into closed hearings today three witnesses who reportedly were named by an Army employee said to have promised to "tell all" about a radar spy ring.

McCarthy called a special Saturday session of his Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, saying it was most important to question the trio following the Army employee's testimony yesterday concerning an alleged espionage ring at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

Today's witnesses are understood to include present and former employees at Ft. Monmouth.

To Tell Of Rosenberg
An indication of the importance McCarthy attached to today's session was his indefinitely deferring a visit to the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., to question David Greenglass, brother-in-law of executed atom spy Julius Rosenberg.

McCarthy has described Rosenberg as mastermind of a spy ring at Ft. Monmouth, Army Signal Corps headquarters of America's top secret radar defense against atomic attack.

Yesterday's testimony at a closed session of the subcommittee came from the Army employee who, McCarthy said, broke down and then admitted lying and agreed to tell what he knew about Rosenberg espionage.

Afraid For Life
The senator did not identify the employee, saying only that he is an "important employee" of the Ft. Monmouth laboratories. McCarthy told newsmen:

"We have placed the witness in the protective custody of this committee; and I wish you would not, if you know his name, publish it, because he is afraid of his own personal safety, in fact his life and the safety of his family."

McCarthy, asserting he is sending a transcript of the subcommittee testimony to the FBI, declared that the witness "talked about members of the Rosenberg spy ring and said he knew Rosenberg very well."

The development came after a week of closed hearings here in the McCarthy group's probe of possible espionage at Ft. Monmouth, where 10 civilian employees reportedly have been suspended recently for security reasons.

Retired Professor At Penn State Is Dead

LONGMONT, Colo. (AP)—Dr. William E. Butt, 65, retired University of Kentucky and Pennsylvania professor, died today after suffering a heart attack while driving his car in this northern Colorado City.

He apparently turned off the ignition after being stricken and the auto coasted to a stop in a residence driveway.

Butt moved here in 1946. He had taught 7 years at Kentucky and 27 at Penn State. He was born Jan. 3, 1881 at Woodburn, Ind.

Survivors include his wife, Inga; a son, Olin of Bellefonte, Pa.; and a daughter, Mrs. William Jay Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio.

U. S. District Judge Robert J. Watson yesterday threw out a demand made by counsel for Frank Bortlik, 21-year-old East Stroudsburg resident under indictment for refusing to report for induction into the armed forces. Bortlik is a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses religious sect.

GEN. H. K. FLUCK COMMANDS 28TH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Brig. Gen. Henry K. Fluck today took over as commander of the 28th Pennsylvania National Guard Division, following the retirement of Maj. Gen. Charles C. Curtis, of Allentown.

Fluck, who has served with the division for many years and was once commander of the 110th Infantry Regiment, was named assistant commander of the 28th earlier this year when the division was reactivated in the PNG.

Gov. John S. Fine, in announcing Curtis' retirement, cited the general for his "outstanding and unselfish devotion to duty during 37 years service to the state and nation."

The governor said Fluck, who is a native of Somerset and a civil engineer, went to San Diego, Calif., for the 75th general conference of the National Guard Assn. of the United States.

The four-day parley opens Monday.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine says the Pennsylvania State Nurses Assn. should enlist and prepare every trained nurse in the state as a working member of the civil defense forces.

In a speech Thursday at the association's convention, Fine said Pennsylvania has only 27,000 registered nurses on active duty although 52,000 are available in the state.

NO EVIDENCE TO SHOW SECRET FILMS REACHED GERMANY REDS

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army said today it still has no evidence that microfilm copies of secret data from its Ft. Monmouth, N. J., Signal Corps laboratory have fallen into hands of Communists in Germany.

Under wartime lend-lease arrangements, the Army said in response to questions, free exchange of information with allied nations was authorized.

Thus it indicated belief that if any microfilm copies of Signal Corps documents are in Communist hands they probably are some given the Russians during the period of World War II cooperation.

Rosenberg Was Masterminded

Chairman McCarthy (R-Wis.) of the Senate investigations subcommittee has said closed door hearings in New York uncovered evidence of a spy ring at Ft. Monmouth, U. S. radar defense headquarters.

McCarthy has described Julius Rosenberg, executed last summer as a Red spy, as the ring's former mastermind and has said the ring may still be active.

The replies provided by the Army today constituted its first discussion of the renewed charges of filched documents.

Old Statement Stands

The Army had said more than a year ago that there was "no evidence that any documents have been compromised or that files have been tampered with in the Signal Corps intelligence agency."

Today, in answer to questions by a newsman, a spokesman said he was authorized to say:

"The statement made in 1952 that there was no evidence that any documents had been compromised or that files had been tampered with in the Signal Corps intelligence agency is still correct."

WANT ISRAEL HAULED BEFORE COUNCIL OF U. N.

By TOM HOGGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council, already confronted with an Israeli-Syrian dispute over the waters of the Jordan River, may be asked to try cooling off a hot border issue between Israel and Jordan.

Britain last night asked the Big Three foreign ministers' meeting in London to haul Israel before the Council on charges of endangering peace in the Middle East.

The move came shortly after the British government accused Israel of an "apparently calculated" attack on three border Jordan villages.

A British Foreign Office spokesman said the U. S., British and French foreign ministers took a grave view of the incident but delayed a decision on what steps to take.

Earlier yesterday, Syria fired off a protest to the Security Council that Israel's diversion of the River Jordan constitutes a threat to Middle East peace.

The alleged Israeli assault Wednesday night reportedly cost 56 Arab lives. It brought expressions of alarm from official quarters in Washington and London.

Ask Punishment

Britain, in a strong protest on behalf of Jordan, demanded that Israel punish those responsible and provide compensation.

The U. S. State Department also was reported considering a public denunciation of Israel.

In Baghdad, Iraq Premier Fadhil Jamal asked the United States and Britain, through their ambassadors, to take serious measures against Israel for the attack.

There was no official comment from Israel.

In the event of rain the program will be held indoors in the high school auditorium. The groups scheduled to report to Major Lipsey, in event of rain, are to report in Rooms 106 and 107 at the high school.

Crosby Stars In New Majestic Film

Bing Crosby's role as an American newspaperman in search of a lost son in his newest picture, Paramount's "Little Boy Lost," which will play the Majestic Theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is the straightest role he has had since his memorable portrayal of a young priest in "Going My Way," a performance which incidentally won him the Academy Award.

In the parlance of the movies, a "straight" role is one which an actor or actress who can sing, or dance, or clown, plays a well delineated character whose primary concern is acting rather than dancing, singing or clowning.

True, in "Little Boy Lost" Bing does sing several songs, and with his traditional charm, but he does them in a manner incidental to the story plot.

Based on the popular novel of the same name by Marghanita Laski, "Little Boy Lost" was produced and directed by William Perlberg and George Seaton. The film was shot in and around Paris, which is the actual locale of the drama.

Warriors Stay Unbeaten By Overcoming Stubborn Shippensburg Outfit 28-0

A stubborn Shippensburg High School football team held Gettysburg High to a 7-0 lead at half-time before yielding in the final half as the undefeated Warriors chalked up their sixth straight victory here Friday night 28-0 before a crowd of approximately 1,500 fans.

Local fans had visions of a walk-away victory when Coach Howard Shoemaker's clan took the opening kickoff and marked 75 yards for a score. Terry Culp circling end from the 1-yard line for the six-pointer. From that point on in the first half the Warriors were kept on the defense most of the time and twice were forced to make goal line stands within the 10-yard line.

Stanton Musser chalked up his eighth and ninth touchdowns of the campaign with Joe Tonsel adding the final six-pointer. Musser's initial TD came in 6:44 of the third period when George Penn fired a 10-yard pass to him in the end zone. The other came with 3:10 minutes gone in the final period when he scooped up a fumble and streaked 73 yards for a score. Bobby Rohrbaugh set up the fumble with a beautiful block on Kling to knock the ball loose as he attempted to lateral to another back.

The final score of the evening came with 3 minutes remaining. Ronnie Williams returned a Shippensburg punt to the Greyhounds' 46. Dick Stough ripped through for eight yards and a line buck made it a first down on the 32. Shippensburg was set back to the 17 on a roughing penalty and on the next play Joe Tonsel swept wide around left end to hit pay dirt. Don Smith added the point via a placement.

Late in the first period Strohm, Greyhound center, pounced on a Warrior fumble on the Shippensburg 46 and from then until half time the locals were on the defense. Angle and Tritt picked up a first down on the Gettysburg 35. Another first down moved the ball to the 24 and then Kling fired a pass to Rosenberg on the 8. Gettysburg braced and held Rosenberg to four yards in two tries while two passes fell incomplete.

With the ball on the 4, the Warriors could pick up but five yards on three tries and Penn got off a wobbly punt to the Gettysburg 30. A pass was good for 9 yards and Wheeler smashed through for a first down on the 19. Rosenberg got 3 and Wheeler 9 on two tries to put the ball on the 7 but again the Warriors were equal to the occasion, eventually securing possession on the 10. Culp, Williams and Penn advanced the ball to the 23 as the half ended. Shippensburg returned the second half kickoff to the 33 and on the first play Kling connected with Rosenberg who had stayed close to the side-line unnoticed when the teams lined up, and Rosenberg raced to the Gettysburg 36. Tritt, Wheeler, Angle and Rosenberg ripped out a first down to the 25. The attack was smothered at that spot as the Warriors took the ball on the 20 from where they launched an 80-yard TD drive.

Connect On Aerial "Chick" Livingston and Williams picked up a first down on the 41 and Livingston got around end for 9 more yards. Penn then whipped a pass to Musser on the Greyhound 30 and he reached the 24. Livingston circled end for 7 and Penn added 7 more on another end run to put the ball on the 10. At that spot the Penn-Musser combination clicked once again for the score. Penn, normally a left-footed kicker, switched to his right foot after a slight leg injury on the previous play, to boot the point.

After taking the ensuing kickoff on their own 25, the Greyhounds took to the air successfully twice to eventually reach the Gettysburg 25. At that point Rohrbaugh slashed through to cause Kling to fumble as he attempted to lateral and Musser picked up the ball for his long TD run.

Reserves In Action Coach Shoemaker swept his bench clean of all substitutes in the final minutes of play and his reservists came through when Tonsel got off on his 17-yarder for a score.

Next Friday the Warriors invade Chambersburg for a conference game with the unbeaten Trojans.

The lineups: Gettysburg Ends—Musser, Baughman, Gorman, Thomas, Potter, Evans, Everly, Tackles—Schmitt (co-c), Dillman, Kuykendall, Dearing, Weaver.

DRESSSEN SEES REESE AS HIS SUCCESSOR AT FLATBUSH HELM

By JOE REICHLER
BROOKLYN (AP)—Charlie Dresssen, who gave up a prize major league job with a pennant winner to manage a minor league team, predicted today that Pee Wee Reese will succeed him as manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"I think Pee Wee is the logical man for the job," said Dresssen who forsook the Dodgers yesterday for the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast League. Dresssen split with the Dodgers in a dispute over the length of a contract. He had demanded a two-year pact and Brooklyn President Walter O'Malley refused to give him more than a one-year term.

"Of course, I don't know what they'll do," Dresssen added, "but Reese ought to make them a good manager. If he gets the job, I wish him all the luck in the world and I'll be rooting hard for him. I think the Dodgers will win the pennant again next year especially with Don Newcombe back from the Army."

Newcombe To Be Back Newcombe, a 20-game winner with the Dodgers in 1951, is scheduled to be discharged from the service in February.

Reese, veteran shortstop and Captain of the Dodgers, is regarded as the top candidate to lead the club next year. If chosen, he will be a playing manager.

Although O'Malley insisted he had nobody in mind yet, he said the next Brooklyn manager would have to be active either on the coaching lines or in the field. The Dodger head said he already had received several applications "from some good men" but he did not expect to name the new manager for several weeks.

"Something To Think About" Reese, reached at his home in Louisville, Ky., said he had not been contacted by anybody in the Dodger organization but hinted he would welcome an opportunity to manage the Dodgers.

"I always said I wouldn't want to manage while I still had some good playing years left," Reese said. "But now, with Dresssen gone, it's something to think about."

"I can't say anything else right now except that I'm sorry Dresssen and Mr. O'Malley couldn't get together. I'm glad to hear that Charlie is happy."

"I have no way of knowing whether I'm being considered for the job or not. Nobody from the front office has called me and I certainly haven't called them."

Bullet Booters Bow To Johns Hopkins

Gettysburg College's soccer team lost its initial Middle Atlantic League contest Friday afternoon when it bowed to Johns Hopkins 4-0 at Baltimore.

The Blue Jays scored three times in the first period and added another tally in the third period.

East Berlin High School suffered a 3-1 defeat at the hands of the visiting Spring Grove soccer team in a York-Adams League game Friday afternoon.

Manchester nosed out Dover 2-1 in another league tilt. The Northern Joint-North York game was ruled "no contest" when a dispute arose about a "goal" in the final seconds. Manchester will play at East Berlin next Tuesday.

SIX GAMES ON PRO FOOTBALL WEEKEND CARD

NEW YORK (AP)—There are six games on the National Football League's week-end schedule and by the time the final whistle blows tomorrow afternoon the eastern division should have an undisputed leader with only one undefeated team.

The western division, however, could well be a deadlocked affair for first place unless the pace-setting Detroit Lions chalk up their fourth straight victory at the expense of the Los Angeles Rams.

The action gets underway tonight with the Pittsburgh Steelers favored to take the Eagles in camp at Philadelphia and stay in the running for the Eastern Conference title. In Jim Fink, the Steelers have one of the best passers in the circuit and his aerials plus a rugged line figures to send the Eagles down to their third defeat. They have tied one.

Big Games Sunday The big games are on tap for tomorrow afternoon. In addition to the Lions-Rams scrap at Detroit, undefeated Cleveland and Washington hit head on in the nation's capital with the Eastern Conference lead at stake. Even though the Redskins have been tied once, the league's percentage way of figuring the standings has them tied with the Browns. Cleveland has won three, Washington two.

Should the Rams whip Detroit, the San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Colts are in a position to throw the Western Conference lead into a four-way tie.

Colts Face Packers The 49ers however, face the tough Chicago Bears without their sparkling, quarterback Y. A. Tittle, and that fact could well lead to their second defeat in as many weeks. They lost to Detroit last Sunday.

The Colts have not been exactly a ball of fire offensively but a fine defense shapes up as too much for the winless Green Bay Packers.

At New York's Polo Grounds, the Giants open their home season against the Chicago Cardinals in a battle of winless elevens.

Top game in the East pits Ohio State against Penn. The Buckeyes, after the Illinois upset last week figure to go to the Quakers with a vengeance. In Ivy League games, it's Yale-Cornell and Columbia-Dartmouth.

WEST VIRGINIA WHIPS G. W. TO STAY UNBEATEN; BIG TILTS TODAY

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP)—The way the behemoths of college football have been stumbling and staggering along in this year of one-plateon play, surprises have become the commonplace.

No upsets are anticipated, of course, when mighty Notre Dame swing back into action against Pitt and Michigan State trots onto the field for a Big 10 clash with Indiana, but some of the teams rated below the Irish and Spartans could be in for unhappy times, indeed.

Both these big boys are 19-point choices in the latest list of odds, but each should be able to win just as it pleases. Notre Dame will have Johnny Latner available for the entire game with his ankle healed while the Spartans will be in no mood to fool as they rush toward their showdown big 10 games. If they win, it will be No. 28 straight.

A Shaky Favorite Georgia Tech, nursing a 30-game undefeated skein, is the favorite over Auburn, but a shaky one. This Auburn club is a going concern with battering ram Bob James and passer Vince Dooley getting better each week. It upset Mississippi and tied Mississippi State in its last two outings and could cause all sorts of trouble for Bobby Dodd's crew.

Illinois, despite its upset victory over Ohio State last week, still must prove itself. The Illini take on Minnesota in another game that could go either way. The result of this one probably will determine if Illinois is going to make a serious bid for the Big 10 title.

The NCAA's television game of the day will come from Birmingham, Ala., where Alabama plays Tennessee. These two teams aren't the powerhouses of old, but 'Bama rates a 13-point choice despite the fact that its top sophomore back, Bart Starr, is lame. Game time is set for 3 p.m. (EST).

W. Va. Still Unbeaten There wasn't as much Friday night action as usual, with only a scattering of important games. West Virginia remained unbeaten by defeating George Washington, 27-6, in a Southern Conference affair, turning two intercepted passes into touchdowns, enough for the victory. Boston College defeated Fordham, 20-13, with Dick (Zig Zag) Scott scoring two touchdowns, kicking two extra points and intercepting a Fordham pass on the goal line. Detroit clubbed Villanova, 27-0, in an intercollegiate clash.

The three teams directly beneath Notre Dame and Michigan State in the weekly Associated Press poll, face what they hope will be relatively easy tasks.

Maryland, No. 3, plays North Carolina; UCLA, No. 4, goes against Stanford, and Michigan, co-favorite for the Big 10 title, engages Northwestern in a league game.

Ohio State—Penn Tops In East Duke, another of the powers of Dixie, visits New York for a visit with Army. Baylor, the current favorite in the Southwest Conference, should have an easy time with Vanderbilt. But Rice, which also could win it, will have to show at its best against Southern Methodist.

Top game in the East pits Ohio State against Penn. The Buckeyes, after the Illinois upset last week figure to go to the Quakers with a vengeance. In Ivy League games, it's Yale-Cornell and Columbia-Dartmouth.

Bratton To Get New Crack At Gavilan

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's Johnny Bratton will get another chance at welterweight champion Kid Gavilan in a Chicago Stadium title match Friday, Nov. 13.

Site and date of the match were announced yesterday by the International Boxing Club. Gavilan won the NBA version of the 147-pound crown from Bratton early in 1951. The Chicagoan is still the No. 1 contender in the welterweight division.

The bout will be telecast nationally with the Chicago area blacked out.

MINOR LEAGUE LEADERS MEET TODAY IN DALLAS

DALLAS (AP)—A meeting of minor league leaders, designed by its originator "to take off the shackles of the majors," opened today and the man who instigated it said an unrestricted draft, repeal of the three-fourths rule, and control of big league broadcasts and telecasts were the principal changes necessary.

Dick Burnett, owner of the Dallas club of the Texas League, called the meeting to frame legislation that will be asked at the annual baseball convention at Atlanta in November.

Burnett has presidents and representatives of 23 of the 37 minor leagues and representatives of six major league clubs here to "save and restore minor league baseball to its former state of popularity."

Wants Rule Change As the two-day meeting started, Burnett was confident that he could obtain an unrestricted draft but said the main thing desired was to give the minors the right to make the rules by majority vote instead of three-fourths.

He argued that since the major leagues controlled at least 26 percent of the minors, no legislation to help the minors could be passed under the three-fourths rule.

Burnett declared that an unrestricted draft not only would curtail the vast chain systems of baseball but would aid the game in its fight to retain the reserve clause, a matter now in court.

Shoemaker Is Top Jockey ALBANY, Calif. (AP)—Soft-spoken Willie Shoemaker is the new world's champion jockey with his 392nd win of the year.

The Texas-born turf terror hit the winner's circle aboard The Hoop in the third race at Golden Gate Fields yesterday for the single victory he needed to better the 390-win mark made last year by Tony DeSpirito.

Wee Willie came back in the eighth race with his 392nd winner, Carry Message.

Shoemaker, a 22-year-old from El Paso and Los Angeles, stands 4 feet 11 inches in his riding boots. He weighs 95½ pounds.

Willie booted home The Hoop, a two-year-old, in 1:10 4-5 for six furlongs, to pay $4.10, $3.10 and $2.50.

In Salem, N. H., DeSpirito wired Shoemaker "congratulations and lots of luck. I hope I'll have a chance to ride against you soon."

The 9 p.m. EST 10-round boxing match is scheduled for nationwide telecast (ABC) except for a local blackout.

The two featherweights staged a bang-up battle in their earlier meeting Sept. 5, which Bossio took by unanimous decision. But some Smith fans thought their man rated a better verdict and are predicting he'll come out on top tonight.

Biglerville Jolts Manheim From Unbeaten Ranks 12-6 In Parents Night Contest

Biglerville High School's Cannons celebrated Parent's Night in appropriate fashion Friday night at Biglerville by handing Manheim Central its initial loss of the season 12-6 in a Conference of the Roses game played before approximately 1,500 spectators.

The game was hard fought throughout with the Cannons tallying in the first and second periods while the Barons hit pay dirt in the final stanza. The triumph was the second straight for Biglerville after a tie and three defeats. Manheim previously won three and tied another.

Coach Gene Haas' clan got in hot water in the opening moments when Manheim recovered a fumble on the Biglerville 25. After pounding out a first down on the 13, the Barons were bottled up by the Cannons defense and lost the ball on the 20 from where Biglerville marched to its first tally.

Naylor, Guise, May and Decker alternated in recording three straight first downs to Manheim's 44 at which point Wayne Guise dropped back and fired a 15-yard pass to Lloyd Naylor who streaked the remaining 30 yards for a score after 8:45 minutes. Guise's boot for the point was blocked.

Biglerville's kick for the point hit the uprights.

Manheim came back and marched from their own 36 to Biglerville's 5 where the Cannons braced and aided by an illegal-use-of-the-hand penalty against the Barons, took over on the 25. Wittel, Graybill and Shank featured the attack in the Manheim bid for a score.

Exchange Fumbles There was no scoring in the third quarter but midway in the round Biglerville took possession on the Manheim 28 via a fumble by Wittel on a punt. Naylor ran 10 yards to the 18 but the threat expired when Manheim recovered a bobble on the 13.

Manheim marched 64 yards for its score in 6:30 of the last period. After two first downs, one on a pass, Shank to Becker, put the ball on the Biglerville 39. Klier broke loose around left end to race 33 yards before being dropped on the 6. Graybill plunged to the 1-foot mark from where Jay Shank bucked over. Klier's kick for the point was blocked.

The Haas-men had one other scoring opportunity late in the period when Dean Stary, tackle, intercepted a pass on the Manheim 17. However, a fumble on the last down lost 13 yards and gave the Barons possession on the 27.

The entire Biglerville team put an excellent brand of ball throughout.

Each team collected eight first downs. Biglerville connected on two of four passes while Manheim made good on four of 11.

Next Saturday the upper county lads play at Palmyra.

Biglerville's band, attired in their new black and gold uniforms, put on a special half time performance. An intra-squad game between Junior High players preceded the main attraction.

Biglerville Ends—E. Shafer, W. Shafer, Hartzell, Kuhn. Tackles—Starry, C. Harmon. Guards—Marks, Farrer, Birgen-smith, G. Harmon. Center—Pitzer. Backs—Guise, Naylor, Decker, May, Roe.

News Of Special Interest To The Automobile Owners Of Adams County

Life Of Tire Is Sacrificed When Rear End Is Sandbagged Or Tire Pressure Is Reduced

The old car always seems to run better after they've quoted a price on a new one.

Since extra weight, other things being equal, makes a car ride more easily there are many owners who jump to the conclusion that putting several hundred pounds of sand bags or window sashweights in the luggage compartment will turn the "puddle jumper" into the soft luxury of a $5,000 job. It seldom occurs to these folk that they could get the same results by reducing tire pressures. In either case tire life is sacrificed, but where the pressure route is followed at least the right way in the days of splash lubrication has lived to make the mistake of not noting that the upper and lower halves of many connecting rods are not interchangeable because the upper

"Many a tinkerer who remembered to place the lower bearing swelled them, stopped the crank engine doesn't have all that extra weight to carry. Nor do the brakes have extra work to do.

Added weight does help to flatten out over-arched leaf springs, but since most cars today have quite flat rear springs the latter weight is not especially desirable. There is a certain sense of added solidity with the increased weight, but it is partially psychological. In slippery weather it may help traction.

Test For Guide Wear

Testing for valve guide wear is done with the aid of a vacuum gauge, but the exact amount of wear can only be determined by measurement. A rough guess at wear can be made by removing an old valve and inserting a new one. Sometimes it is the value stem that wears, not the guide. Under such conditions a new valve will fit snugly.

How the weather can affect a car's operation was certainly hampered home to me in great shape this past year. Prior to summer I had been using Kathryn's car for errands and leaving my car in the garage which, being part of lower level of the house, is generously heated. Later when I began using my car more extensively I was alarmed because of a very unusual groaning action whenever starting off. Since this car is Hotchkiss drive (meaning that the push of the wheels is conveyed to the chassis and body through the rear leaf springs, I immediately suspected spring or shackle trouble. A thorough inspection, however, showed nothing on this order. Every trick was tried. But invariably the groaning came back.

Then came summer with a lot of outdoor parking at the seaside. Suddenly I became conscious of the fact that the groaning had completely disappeared. It has not returned. You have probably guessed that the basic trouble was excessive drying of the wood sections of the car's body. Damp-halves with the dippers going the bearing has oil holes for rod oil passages. It just goes to show that things do not change so much basically, and that you have got to be on your guard against errors. However, remember that as the sages say the worst mistake anyone can make is fearing that he will make one."

Better Take A Look

When should brakes be relined?

Visual inspection is the heart of such checking. Take a look at the front brakes, not merely because it is easier to remove the front wheels but also because front brakes usually wear more than rear brake. If the linings have worn down to the rivets of course new lining is needed. The same rule holds if the linings are wet with wheel bearing grease or brake fluid. If the brake pedal is hard the chances are that the lining is old, or was never the right kind. Sometimes linings will be found to be scored by road dirt. They should always be replaced if loose.

A friend who shall be nameless will be a little more careful when adding brake fluid to the master cylinder's reservoir in the future. He knew that he should never use mineral oil in the system, but when he picked up a small funnel he didn't realize that a few drops of such oil that were on it would make any difference when adding brake fluid. Just that small amount of oil caused sufficient chemical reaction to damage rubber parts of the braking system, and start a leak.

It always seems like a good excuse but most experienced drivers know that it doesn't pay to tell an officer that the speedometer on your car may be inaccurate if he stops you for speeding. He can easily come back with the argument that if you know this gauge is not telling the truth why are you violating regulations by not keeping it in reliable condition?

I once used the speedometer excuse and got away with it only because I pointed out that the new set of tires on my car changed the reading. It was the first time I had run into this experience and evidently the officer was in a mood to consider this as an unusual exception. Anyhow he obligingly drove ahead to the legal limit and then stopped to ask me what the dings registered on my car. It was five miles an hour slow.

Time For Checking

After the touring season it is always a good idea to check the front wheel bearings which may be found badly in need of more lubricant. Heat things out lube and if the retainers are unable to hold the lube it may work into the brakes. Grabbing of the brakes serves as a hint of this but sometimes the process is slow the bearings may become starved without the brakes becoming unruly.

Better results from that new set of breaker points can be had if you will take time out to back to the shop for a secondary adjustment a week or two later. There will be just enough initial wear on the fibre rubbing block of the breaker arm to cause a slight reduction in gap. Also the mechanic will check to make sure there isn't excessive wear due to roughness of the cam.

Keep These In Mind

Few of us ever stop to realize that a lot of carbon in the cylinders or excessive scale in the cooling system causes a drop in oil pressure. Heat just has a more difficult time reaching the coolant, and when the oil heats it thins down.

Bumper jacks used on the rear of any car with leaf rear springs may bring on spring squeaks by disturbing the interliners.

What's Your Trouble?

Q. There is some grease on the lower end of one of the front brake's shoes. Was this the result of wheel bearing grease thinning out? J. G. B.

A. If the bearing grease was the type that doesn't thin out I would suspect that the king pins were overlubricated. Sometimes lube can work into the lower part of the drums from there.

Q. My car has a jerky action whenever I move the selector lever from the "neutral" position to "drive." Wm. K.

A. This is due to the engine idling too fast. Lower the idling speed by adjusting the throttle stop screw.

Q. How long should I wait after delivery of my new car to have it waxed? R. B.

A. Have this done right away, or have the dealer take care of the finish with one of the special processes which protect it. Contrary to what you may hear no waiting period is necessary.

Q. Apparently the valve guides on my car's engine are a little on the tight side because there is some difficulty preventing the valves from sticking. Would you recommend having the guides reamed out a little larger? J. V. N.

A. No. Try to get along with valve oils and additives until the guides wear normally. This engine probably will turn out to be a very satisfactory one from the standpoint of valve action.

Q. There is an annoying, and somewhat alarming, "clunking" noise somewhere in the steering system of my car. I seem to get it most when cutting the wheels to their extremes as in parking, but occasionally hear it when driving over rough roads. W. M. C.

A. From what you say I suspect that one of the shock absorbers is causing this. One of the front shocks may be shy of fluid or defective.

Q. I should like to have the brake pedal start to apply the brakes more quickly when it is pressed down. How do I go about adjusting this? T. K.

A. Your question itself indicates that your are not sufficiently acquainted with the braking system to undertake any work of this sort yourself. The action you desire at the pedal is obtained by taking up on the brake shoes. You would need an hydraulic lift and especially the know-how.

Q. I disconnected the generator regulator in order to see if it was properly grounded, and now the ammeter doesn't work properly. What happened? T. K. McB.

A. Your probably grounded one of the wires to the regulator.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford, 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

PRICE SUPPORTS TO BE PART OF IKE'S NEW FARM PLAN FOR NATION

By ED CREAUGH
KANSAS CITY (AP)—President Eisenhower says his administration, whose farm policies have been frequently criticized, is almost ready to set forth a new program for agriculture. It will retain price supports.

"We will have that program ready for the consideration of Congress early next year," he said Thursday night. "After that, of course, begin the exhaustive committee hearings and debate in the Congress."

"The end result will be as sound and as carefully thought out a farm program as practical experience, expert knowledge and good judgment can devise."

Refers To Farm Here
The President spoke before the silver anniversary convention of the Future Farmers of America, a national farm boy organization.

Turning to price supports, he declared, "All of us know that the price support principle must be part of any future farm program."

Jimmy Dillon of Jones, La., president of the Future Farmers of America, introduced the Chief Executive to the crowd of youngsters and their guests. Dillon also presented Eisenhower with an honorary "farmer" degree. With a grin, Eisenhower said maybe the degree would entitle him to free Agriculture Department pamphlets for his Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

An audience of 11,000 that packed Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium to the roof cheered Eisenhower's espousals of self-reliance even more loudly than his promises of federal action alone to meet drought, falling prices and other problems.

Eisenhower said studies by the administration and by Congress are near "the final phase" and will be put before the legislators early next year.

There'll be a meeting, he said, of his national agricultural advisory commission, Secretary of Agriculture Benson and himself at the White House Oct. 24.

And what will come of it, the President said amid deafening applause, will be a program whose goal is to "build markets, safeguard farm income and protect customers."

Some form of "price support principle" will be included, he declared.

TAYLOR SAYS "WIN ELECTION"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, says Republican state leaders should concentrate on winning the November election instead of renewing factional feuds.

"This is no time to talk about a fight in 1954," Taylor said Thursday. "This is the time to talk harmony and elect two Superior Court judges in 1953. This certainly is no time to discuss personalities in next year's campaign."

Taylor's statement was prompted by exchanges between G. Mason Owlett, Republican national committeeman, and U. S. Sen. James H. Duff.

Owlett said there would be another GOP primary fight should Duff seek the Republican nomination for governor next year. Duff retorted that Owlett made a "distasteful statement."

Need More Money To Improve Roads

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chief Engineer C. H. Buckius of the State Highways Department said Friday new revenue is needed if Pennsylvanians are to receive all the road improvements they want.

"Up to the present, there has been a maximum of talk on necessity of improvements, with a minimum of effort to secure the necessary funds," he said. "This procedure must be reversed if you want the highways you need in the reasonably near future."

Buckius made the statement in a speech prepared for delivery at the fifth annual conference of planning and economic development of the Greater Philadelphia - Delaware-South Jersey Council.

GROUP REPORTS ON NBS PROBE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A committee of investigating scientists has graded as "superior" the work of the National Bureau of Standards, but it cautioned that practical pressures imperil this rating.

The committee, appointed last spring by Secretary of Commerce Weeks to evaluate the bureau's activities, recommended in its report last night:

1. More funds for the bureau.
2. Operational reforms, including concentration on basic research.
3. The return of weapons development to the Defense Department.

The committee said these pressures—lack of money, need for stress on fundamental research and emphasis on weapons tests—hampered the bureau in carrying out its research role assigned by Congress in the fields of physics, mathematics, electronics, chemistry, metallurgy and engineering.

Weeks praised the nine-man committee, headed by Dr. M. J. Kelley of Bell Telephone Laboratories, as having rendered "a valuable service to the nation." He recalled that he already has put into effect the group's recommendation to shift weapons development back to the Pentagon.

Polish Bishop Is Seized By Police

MUNICH, Germany, (AP)—Radio Free Europe said Friday that Polish Bishop Lucjan Bernacki, auxiliary to Stefan Cardinal Wysinski, was seized by Polish secret police on Sept. 28.

His arrest, the broadcast said, brought to nine the number of Polish church leaders arrested or removed by the Warsaw government.

U. S. WILL HELP FEED CATTLE IN WEST SAYS IKE

By LARRY HALL

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Governors of drought-stricken states presented a federal-state share-the-cost program to President Eisenhower today and got an agreement for federal assistance in feeding starving cattle.

Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado, chairman of the governors' drought conference here, said the President, who breakfasted with the governors, was pleased with the states' action.

Thornton quoted the President as saying their share-the-cost program fitted in with his views that the best government is government on the local level.

The President shared a hearty country-style breakfast with the 12 governors, then took off by plane for a quick trip to his boyhood home in Abilene, Kas.

Plan No Penalties
Thornton said the President had assured them no state would be penalized in the drought relief program if it could not put up any state funds. Agriculture Secretary Benson, also here for the conference, confirmed that.

Benson said the funds to share the cost of transporting hay would be allocated on the basis of the number of cattle in drought disaster areas.

The department of agriculture will pay up to one half of the cost of transporting hay into the drought-seared areas or $10, whichever is smaller.

The states, in turn, will be responsible for buying and distributing the hay to farmers and ranchers.

Have Emergency Fund
The federal money will come from a $10,000,000 emergency fund allocated by the President two weeks ago.

The President detailed last night, in a broadcast and televised address to the Future Farmers of America, what he thinks the federal and state governments should do about this "drought of devastating intensity," as he called it.

The president said his administration, whose farm policies have been frequently criticized, is almost ready to set forth a new program for agriculture. It will retain price supports.

4-H CLUB TO MEET

The Adams County 4-H Baby Beef Club will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Francis Murren, Hanover R. 4. Additional members, young men and women between the ages of 10 and 20, can still be accepted into the organization, it was announced.

Egg Production Continues Gain

HARRISBURG (AP)—For the 29th consecutive month state egg production topped output for the same month in previous years, the State Agriculture Department reported today.

A federal-state survey showed that September egg production was 6 million over the September record of 263 million in 1952.

At the same time the survey reported that state milk production in September was down some 6 million pounds from the same month in 1952.

Milk output in September totaled 457 million pounds. It was the first month in 1953 in which milk production fell below the same month last year.

FALLS 16 FLOORS TO DEATH FRIDAY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A well-dressed woman plummeted to her death from an upper floor of the Girard Trust Corn Exchange Bank building Friday, smashing into a subway entrance just across South Penn Square from City Hall. The body landed on a sidewalk only two feet from a bank messenger.

The woman appeared to be in her late thirties. Police, seeking to identify her, said she apparently fell from a window at about the 16th floor.

The tragedy was witnessed by many passersby on busy South Penn Square near the Broad street intersection.

Policeman Jack Reskoff, directing traffic at the corner, said he heard the thud of the falling body "then I heard women on the street screaming."

"They began running into the street in all directions."

BIG 3 FOREIGN MINISTERS OPEN LONDON PARLEY

LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three foreign ministers opened a three-day discussion Friday on pressing worldwide problems. How to keep a hot war from starting over Trieste headed their list of headaches.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Bidault started their first conference promptly at 11 a.m. in the green-walled conference room at the British Foreign Office. The talks are due to wind up Sunday.

Dulles, arriving in London last night, warned they would not produce any "magic formula for peace." But he said he was "confident this exchange of views among three friends will advance the cause of worldwide peace and justice."

In addition to Trieste, they were to take up their new overture to the Kremlin for Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to discuss Germany and Austria with them, the next moves in Korea and Indochina and other pressing problems around the globe.

Prime Minister Churchill was expected to inject, through Eden, his proposal for the West's top leaders to meet with Soviet Premier Malenkov. Dulles was expected to look on this British idea with a wary eye.

Dulles Thursday emphasized his view that the way to peace is through "continuing painstaking efforts to deal concretely with actual complicated situations which could become the starting points of war."

TRUCKER BURNS IN PIKE CRASH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two tractor trailers and an automobile collided and caught fire near the Allegheny Valley interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Friday, burning to death one of the truckers and seriously injuring two other men.

The dead man is James R. Meek of Coshocton, Ohio, driver of a pipe-laden truck.

Admitted to Citizens General Hospital, New Kensington, were Meek's brother-in-law, Mack Kirkner, 25, of Coshocton, and the auto driver, Robert S. Gonzer, 23, of Maplewood, N. J., a serviceman.

Kirkner suffered burns of the entire body and hip injuries. Gonzer received a possible skull fracture, broken nose and body cuts.

The driver of the second truck, James E. Catlett of Port Morris, N. J., escaped unhurt.

State police said the auto and Meek's truck, headed in the same direction, collided first, scattering pipe over the highway and setting the truck cab on fire. They said Catlett's truck, going the same direction, then hit the pipe and slammed into the wreckage, causing his trailer to burst into flame.
